FOR RELEASE

This year in addition to its traditional holiday activities The Cleveland Museum of Art is offering a Christmas lecture, "The Christian Story in Art." Marguerite Munger, the Museum's Supervisor of Club Activities, will illustrate events in the life of Christ with paintings, sculpture and stained glass by artists of various countries and periods. Special emphasis will be given to nativity scenes related to the Christmas season. Any interested group can make arrangements to hear this talk by telephoning Mrs. Munger at Garfield 1-7340.
